

CHRIST OF GOD MINISTRIES

When you do this process, it's about your intent and desire in your heart. You must choose to release it and not hold onto the hindrance any longer. The purpose of this is to start the inner healing purging process, the step in which we start to remove our binds and strongholds, the emotional ties, trauma we have experienced from past situations or events. It's also used to break curses, unclean spirits and witchcraft, restoring our DNA, removing deformities ect.. This will also build your relationship with the Holy Spirit, Yeshua and YHVH, as you are opening your heart to healing and this will break down the barriers between you and the Father and also strengthen your communication with Him. This process will break down the legal spiritual ties and their effects over you and your bloodline and other people.

Imagine an onion, you may repent for one layer of corruption, however there's many more layers underneath, that need to be dealt with until you reach the core. The Holy Spirit will do this in a gentle process, as He knows your heart and knows how to heal you. Stay patient and stay strong! This is not a quick fix, however it's a permanent solution. To redeem full freedom and purge your past you want to continue this process. The more time you spend purging, the more freedom you will receive.

YHVH bless you! Love COGM

3 STEPS TO PURGING DETAILED BELOW

Step 1. Box Process Inner Healing

Step 2. Courts of Heaven

Step 3. Confirming your Freedom

STEP 1. BOX PROCESS

THE INNER HEALING

With anything the Lord has revealed to you, it should be taken through the box process, so any possible emotional attachments can be healed and removed, whether you are aware of the emotions or not.

Imagine yourself with YHVH, Yeshua or Holy Spirit, and imagine Him giving you an empty box. Place your situation inside the box with every memory, the trauma, the people, all feelings, all emotions, any tears, unforgiveness, bitterness, sadness, grief, hatred, anxiety, lust, anger, anything to do with this situation in your life or in your past. You may find that more memories/events may come to your mind, place them all into the box too. When you run out of things, ask Him if there is any more you need to place inside the box, wait and see if anything more comes to you, then place these inside the box too. Continue doing this process until nothing else comes up, you can always repeat it if more come to mind later, but it is important to keep asking Him to reveal them to you.

Once you have done this, you can imagine closing the box up and handing it back over to Him, choosing to release everything you were holding onto.

(Optional, as this can help with additional healing)

Imagine Him giving you a gift back, open the gift, wait and receive with love what He gives you, His gift could be anything and often changes in each gift you receive back. You can also ask Him to show you where He was when this trauma/event happened in your life, this may bring you more closure.

(You can teach this to children to help them grow a closer intimate relationship with Yeshua and help them overcome their issues/situations/emotions ect... Our imagination is a connection to the spirit realm. If you are unable to imagine receiving a gift back, that's okay, imagine something you would want to receive, as YHVH already knows what you need. Seeing/Hearing ect takes practice. Don't worry if you think you made it up, the enemy will always try to fill you with doubt, however our Father in heaven always gives His children Good Gifts!)

STEP 2. COURTS OF HEAVEN

This step acknowledges the corruption and pleads guilty to what you are purging, it also repents and renounces it, dealing with the legalities of corruption. This will release you from the binding contracts, and remove any effects it has caused in your life. As Yeshua has already paid the price for all full restoration on the cross. Pleading the blood of Yeshua over your case, will pay any outstanding debts against you or your bloodline, as Yeshua is our Advocate. Important to note; you must know the exact thing that needs repenting, to understand what you need to repent for you will need to seek the Holy Spirit for the answer and not assume you know.

(Optional) Imaging yourself in the courtroom can help build your faith and can also open up spiritual experiences. Imagine yourself before YHVH in a courtroom, the more you do it, the more it will change into what it looks like.

Step 1. Seeking Holy Spirit for answers

Seek Holy Spirit about your situation, contract, unclean spirit, witchcraft, curse, emotion, feeling, soul ties, trauma ect... and ask Him what you need to repent for and why. It's very important to ask 'Why', if you skip this step you will not mature in wisdom and understanding of why this happened in the first place, and could result in the same thing happening again in the future. Once He has explained 'Why' ask Him more questions about it and go deeper on the subject. You won't be able to purge the word 'Anger', you'll have to repent for what Holy Spirit reveals to you about your anger and go deeper on the topic. The more questions you can ask about it, the better your understanding will be. We must never assume you know the 'Why', as we are not always able to see the correct lens of YHVH in all circumstances. Growing in wisdom will help you grow in spiritual discernment.

Step 2. Courts of Heaven Guide

Once you have sought the Holy Spirit and He has revealed to you exactly what needs to be repented of, you can begin taking this through the courts.

On the next page is an example prayer to help you start it.

Note: This is not a religious formula, however it can help guide you to understand how to walk through the courts and learn how to receive freedom.

Example Courtroom Prayer

Father, I repent, renounce and plead guilty to everything I just took through the Box (from Step 1). I plead guilty to opening any doors and to all sins, iniquities and transgressions. I plead guilty to..... (Add here anything else you would like).

Ask Holy Spirit is there anything else you need to repent for regarding this case?

- If you receive more, proceed to repent of this now, then continue asking the Holy Spirit if there is more to repent for until you receive nothing else.
- If you received nothing more, continue on below.

Yeshua I ask you to close all open doors and I paint Your blood over my body, soul, spirit and my bloodline. I plead the blood of Yeshua over this case. Thank you Father.

Rebuking Spirits / Witchcraft (Repeat a few times if necessary)

I command every spirit that has no legal tie, bindings, contract to leave me and my bloodline in Yeshuas' name go to the abyss and never return.

I break and cut all ties to any witchcraft and command it to be broken now in Yeshua's name. Thank you Father, Amen!

Note: You may feel a reaction of burping, coughing, yawning, this is normal, and you also may feel nothing, this is also normal. Everyone experiences healing and deliverance differently.

Here is a list that may help you understand what you may need to repent for regarding your different situations. Not limited to this list; however, use it as a guide to understand what spiritual / physical components can affect your life.

- Unforgiveness, bitterness, hatred, fury, grief, betrayal, ect...
- Anxiety, lust, anger, depression, sorrow, greed, self pity ect...
- Witchcraft, spells, curses, hexes, sorcery, magic ect...
- Oaths, bindings, ties, soul ties, covenants, contracts ect...
- Sacrifices, ceremonies, rituals, altars, initiations ect...
- Occultism, voodooism, shamanism ect...
- Trading, exchanging, selling, buying, ownership ect...
- Negative impartations, frequencies, vibrations ect...
- False religion, false theology, Idolatry ect...

STEP 3. CONFIRMING YOUR FREEDOM

After you have purged this (Box Process and Courts of Heaven), sit and ask the Holy Spirit if this is complete. Wait patiently for a response and if He says no, or you feel it's not complete, ask Him what else there is to purge in regards to this until He confirms it's complete. He sometimes may confirm through dreams or other means at a later time.

Purging a particular topic may take a few minutes up to a few months, depending on how many layers there are to your onion. Everyone's situation is different and the time to complete it will always vary for each person and for every situation you are purging.

If you are not receiving from the Holy Spirit or not finding freedom, it's not complete. You may not always have instant full freedom after purging your particular topic once, as there may be further onion layers to breakdown. Continue seeking the Holy Spirit for more information on what may be required in purging. Alternatively you can contact COGM for more guidance. We recommend everyone who is purging to read our website for more in-depth understanding.

Once you are comfortable with the above steps, you then can take multiple things through the box, and then take them all through the Courts of Heaven at once. Saving you lots of time. Eventually once you have matured in the purging the Lord may ask you to purge for your bloodline and for others.

Example; you could put 50 things in the box individually, and then take the 50 things through the Courts in one bulk prayer, so you only have to do the Courts prayer once for the 50 items. The Box Process is preparation for the Courts of Heaven to work, both steps are very important in different ways.

Remember to always ask if there's anything more to repent of and also ask the Holy Spirit if it's complete to receive full freedom and healing.
